

Liq'wala Language Committee Questionnaire

The Liq'wala Language Revitalization Committee is pleased to advise that 20 Liq'wala language videos have been created and have been posted to a new resource page on the Wei Wai Kum website (see the Language and Culture section of the Members area of the site). They are also posted on YouTube: "Easy Lessons in Liq'wala". The following is the YouTube site where you may view the videos (first type in YouTube and that site will come up. Then type in "Easy Lessons in Liq'wala" and it will show "20 videos" under Easy Lessons in Liq'wala. Otherwise type in the following:

https://www.youtube.com/results?search_query=easy+lessons+in+liqwala. Please note that the following questionnaire is related to the Easy Lessons in Liq'wala videos.

1) Is there anything that we should change to help you learn Liq'wala easier?

Yes

No:

2) Should the videos be longer? Shorter?

Longer

Yes

No

Shorter

Yes

No

3) Should the speakers talk slower, repeat more?

Repeat

Yes

No

Talk Slower

Yes

No

4) Can you please recommend if there are other subjects you would like to see spoken in Liq'wala?

Can you please complete this questionnaire, after reviewing the videos, and print your name and telephone number on it and return the questionnaire to the band office to be eligible to enter the draw for 2 separate $50 gift certificates (or e-mail your completed questionnaire to Shirley Johnson at tus@lkts.ca)?

Draw date is February 23, 2018

Name: _____

Telephone no. _____